CORAM: A.P. DESHPANDE, J.
2.8.2007

PC:

Partly allowing the application filed by the respondent-wife the Family Court has granted regular access to two minor children. The prayer made by the respondent to have custody of the children for half of the summer vacation has been rejected. The petitioner-husband has objected to the order passed by the Family Court to the extent it grants regular access to the children. Perused the order. Same does not call for interference. By the impugned order mother of children is granted access to minor children. Writ petition is summarily dismissed.
